

Tinker's Dam

Tinker's Dam performs a conglomerate of Celtic music with an influx of traditional "American" folk/bluegrass. The members are a combination of locally based musicians who also play with other groups (Reedy Creek, Southern Horizon, Runaway String Band, Karma Farmers) lending a level of ability and virtuosity to their craft. They have joined forces to create a new unique identity in Tinker's Dam.

The roster of musicians include Doug Austin on mandolin, Matt Boon on upright bass and vocals, Ian Danielsen on guitar and vocals, Dave Shiflett on guitar and vocals and Su Tarr on fiddle and vocals.
